

OrchardNow for High-Stakes Test Practice

Correlated to State Testing Standards

Use in preparation for testing to raise test scores—practice all year, just before testing or during school breaks. Pretests mimic state tests and pinpoint areas in need of remediation. Custom practice lessons prepare students to do their best on test day.

Correlated to State Curriculum Standards

Complement classroom work by using throughout the year. Students receive additional practice on skills being taught in class while reports enable teachers to identify students that require extra help before they fall behind.
